

Talia Rothstein, Hobbs Fellow

Talia K. Rothstein (they/them) is the 2022 Hobbs Fellow at NCLC and a third-year law student at Yale. In law school, Talia supports worker organizing in the Worker Rights and Immigrant Advocacy Clinic and seeks disability benefits for LGBTQ+ veterans in the Veterans Legal Services Clinic. Talia spent last summer at the ACLU of Pennsylvania and graduated cum laude from Harvard College. After graduation, Talia will be clerking for Judge William J. Kayatta, Jr. on the First Circuit.