The Honorable Steve Cohen
Ranking Member, Subcommittee on
Regulatory Reform, Commercial and Antitrust Law
Committee on the Judiciary
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ranking Member Cohen:

On behalf of the undersigned organizations, we are writing to express our strong support for the Private Student Loan Bankruptcy Fairness Act of 2013.

Private education loans are one of the riskiest, most expensive ways to pay for college. Like credit cards, they typically have variable interest rates that are higher for those who can least afford them. However, private education loans are treated much more harshly in bankruptcy than credit cards and other comparable types of debt.

Private education loan borrowers also lack access to the important deferment, income-based repayment, or loan forgiveness options that accompany federal student loans. This leaves most private loan borrowers at the mercy of the lender if they face financial distress due to unemployment, disability, illness, or military deployment, or when a school shuts down before they can finish their certificate or degree. The recent sudden closures of for-profit colleges in Connecticut, Maryland, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island underscore the urgent need for the Private Student Loan Bankruptcy Fairness Act of 2013.

The congressionally mandated July 2012 report from the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the Department of Education documented the need for bankruptcy relief for struggling private loan borrowers. Your legislation would reverse the unfair and unjustified special bankruptcy protections for private lenders included in the 2005 bankruptcy law. Representing students, consumers, higher education institutions, faculty and staff, as well as civil rights and public policy organizations, our broad and growing coalition thanks you for your continued leadership on this important issue.

Sincerely,
