II. Jurisdiction

3. The Attorney General brought this enforcement action pursuant to her authority found in Ark. Code Ann. § 25-16-701 et seq., §§ 4-88-105, 4-88-111, and the Arkansas Constitution. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter and the parties hereto pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 4-88-104, and the common law of the State of Arkansas.

4. Venue is proper pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. §§ 4-88-104, 4-88-112, 16-60-104, and the common law of the State of Arkansas.

5. For purposes of this Consent Judgment, the Defendants waive all objections and defenses that they may have to the jurisdiction or venue of the Circuit Court of Pulaski County, Arkansas, and shall not challenge the Court's jurisdiction in any subsequent action by the parties hereto to enforce the terms of this Consent Judgment. Defendants reserve the right to object to jurisdiction or venue in any other subsequent action filed against them by the Attorney General or in any other matter filed by any third party.

III. Parties

6. This Consent Judgment applies to, and is binding upon, the Attorney General and the Defendants.

7. Any change of ownership or status of the Defendants, including but not limited to, any transfer of assets of real or personal property, shall in no way alter the Defendants' responsibilities under this Consent Judgment.

8. All parties enter into this Consent Judgment for the purpose of compromising and resolving disputed claims within the meaning of Rule 408 of the Federal and Arkansas Rules of Evidence. It is expressly understood that nothing contained in this Consent Judgment shall be construed as an admission by Defendants of any liability, wrongdoing, or factual or legal issue and this Consent Judgment may not be used as evidence of liability. Defendants do not waive any defenses that they may raise elsewhere in other litigation.

IV. The Attorney General's Position

9. Defendants engaged in violations of the Arkansas Deceptive Trade Practices Act by providing usurious loans to consumers in exchange for signed post-dated checks. When the loan was due, the check was deposited into one of the Defendants' bank accounts. If a bank returned a check for insufficient funds in a consumer's account or a closed account, Defendants then presented the check and a Hot Check affidavit to the prosecuting attorney for enforcement in contravention of the statute. Once submitted, the prosecuting attorney's office mailed a courtesy notice of refusal of payment to the consumer and demands payment within ten (10) days. All consumers whose loan checks were submitted to the prosecuting attorney paid prosecuting attorney's fees of $30 to $90 and bank fees to avoid prosecution. If consumers did not pay the prosecutor attorney within the time allotted, the prosecuting attorney's office issued a warrant for the consumer's arrest. Consumers who were charged, arrested, and convicted paid additional court fines, fees, and other costs. In some instances, consumers' driver's licenses were suspended for nonpayment of fines or other court or probation fees. Upon investigation by the Attorney General, it appears that Defendants have abused the courts and law enforcement as a means to collect on debts that are void as to principal and interest under Arkansas's Constitutional usury cap. Over the last five years, Defendants have turned over approximately 464 checks for round dollar amounts of $100 or more that the State suspects were security for usurious loans or check-cashing. The Arkansas Attorney General's Office's investigation included a review of the Hot Check Coordinator records of the Thirteenth Judicial District and the court records of Dallas County Circuit and District Court. Defendants' conduct was unlawful and relief must be provided to all Affected Consumers whose checks were wrongfully submitted to law enforcement for collection and prosecution for misdemeanor and felony criminal charges.

V. The Defendants' Position

10. Defendants deny the legal and factual assertions contained in Section IV above, entitled "The Attorney General's Position."

11. This Consent Judgment does not constitute an admission by the Defendants of any fact or the existence or application of any law, regulation, or legal principle.

12. Defendants disclaim any liability or wrongdoing.

VI. Relief

A. Injunctive Provisions

14. Defendants shall cooperate and assist the State to resolve all wrongful arrests or convictions of Affected Consumers, reinstatement of their licenses, refunds of fees and fines, and expungement of any criminal records.

B. Monetary Provisions

15. Restitution. Within thirty days of the entry of this Consent Judgment, Defendants shall make a payment of an amount of $50,000 to be provided as restitution to Eligible Affected Consumers for Prosecuting Attorney Fees, Merchant Fees, and Criminal Fines and Fees. The Attorney General's Office shall provide restitution to the Eligible Affected Consumers directly, through the Prosecuting Attorney, or 13th Judicial District Public Defender's Office or other appropriate entity. The persons identified as Eligible Affected Consumers, as well as any sums determine to be paid to each Eligible Affected Consumer, shall be within the discretion of the Arkansas Attorney General and based upon credible evidence. Any sums payable to an Eligible Affected Consumer but not delivered within 365 days shall go to the State Auditor as unclaimed property.

16. Defendants shall withdraw all outstanding Hot Check Affidavits submitted to the Hot Check Coordinator for $100 or more during the Statute of Limitation, which is estimated to be valued at approximately $125,000.

17. Any restitution amount not payable to an Eligible Affected Consumer shall be poured over to the Consumer Education and Enforcement Fund to be used in accordance with Act 763 of the 2013 Arkansas General Assembly.

18. Suspended Penalty. Defendants are assessed civil penalties under Ark. Code Ann. § 4-88-113(a)(3) in the amount of $250,000.00. Violations of the ADTPA are punishable by up to a $10,000 fine per violation. This Civil Penalty is SUSPENDED. Should Defendants violate any portion of this Consent Judgment, the suspended penalty shall become immediately due and payable. The payment shall be delivered to Chief Fiscal Officer, Arkansas Attorney General's Office, 323 Center Street, Suite 200, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201, and shall bear the name of the Defendants upon the face of the check. A copy of the payment shall be contemporaneously delivered to the Attorney General's counsel of record in this matter.

VII. Miscellaneous Provisions

19. This Consent Judgment constitutes the entire agreement of the Attorney General and the Defendants. The undersigned acknowledges that there are no communications or oral understandings contrary, different, or which in any way restrict this Consent Judgment and that all prior agreements or understandings within the subject matter of this Consent Judgment are, upon the effective date of the Consent Judgment, superseded, null, and void.

20. This Consent Judgment resolves and releases all civil claims, causes of action, or proceedings which were or could have been asserted by the State of Arkansas against Defendants relating to those practices alleged within its Complaint. This release shall not in any way limit the authority of the Attorney General to conduct such investigations as she deems advisable or to bring any enforcement action regarding alleged violations of law unrelated to her Complaint or occurring after the date of this Consent Judgment. Also, the Attorney General is empowered to seek enforcement of all sections of this Consent Judgment by appropriate petition to this Court.

21. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall be construed to deprive any person or entity not a signatory hereto of any private right of action of any kind whatsoever, nor shall this Consent Judgment be construed to create any private right of action for any person or entity not a signatory hereto. This Consent Judgment does not constitute an admission by the Defendants of any fact or the existence or application of any law, regulation, or legal principle.

22. Nothing herein shall be construed as the endorsement of or acquiescence in, any trade practices of the Defendants, past, current, or future; and, Defendants shall make no representation to the contrary.

23. Nothing herein shall be construed as the admission by the Defendants of any fact or the existence or application of any law, regulation, or legal principle applicable to the Defendants; and, the Attorney General shall make no representations to the contrary.

24. This Consent Judgment will be construed and enforced under the laws of the State of Arkansas.

VIII. SIGNATORIES
