

Lauryn Hart, Development Coordinator

Lauryn Hart is NCLC's Development Coordinator, responsible for maintaining and managing our database to better engage our donors. She graduated from Northeastern University and has previously worked with the Massachusetts Promise Fellowship at Freedom House in Boston. She found her passion for economic justice during her time at Massachusetts Appleseed Center for Law and Justice where she served as their Development and Communications intern. In her free time, Lauryn can be found on a long hike, out in the woods camping, or sitting on the beach with a good book.
