

Introduction to Harvard's Criminal Justice Policy Program's 50-State Criminal Justice Debt Law Web Tool

March 1, 2018

The National Consumer Law Center and the Criminal Justice Policy Program at Harvard Law Schools free webinar series on criminal justice debt continues this spring. Confronting Criminal Justice Debt focuses on the fines and fees imposed by the criminal justice system. This webinar series brings together leading attorneys, academics, and other advocates to identify problems with the current fine and fee practices, including their disproportionate impact on the poor and people of color, and to discuss litigation and policy solutions.

Advocates may use the Criminal Justice Policy Program at Harvard Law Schools new free web tool for researching and analyzing the laws regarding criminal justice debt in each of the 50 states. This webinar will provide an introduction to the web tool-the 50-State Criminal Justice Debt Reform Builder-and showcase ways to use it effectively for research and for work toward criminal justice debt policy reform.

Speaker: Ranit Patel, Criminal Justice Policy Program at Harvard Law School

Moderator: Brian Highsmith, National Consumer Law Center

Advocates may use the Criminal Justice Policy Program at Harvard Law School's new free web tool for researching and analyzing the laws regarding criminal justice debt in each of the 50 states. This webinar will provide an introduction to the web tool-the 50-State Criminal Justice Debt Reform Builder-and showcase ways to use it effectively for research and for work toward criminal justice debt policy reform.

Recording

Download Presentation

Confronting Criminal Justice Debt: A Guide for Policy Reform Definitions and Methodology