

Webinars

PAST NCLC'S WEBINARS

Basics of Veterans Administration (VA) Benefits (Veterans Affairs)

This webinar discusses organization of the VA and reviewing courts as well as claims for disability compensation benefits.

Credit Discrimination: New Ideas for Challenges to Discriminatory Policies

This webinar gives an overview of reform efforts, including loan-level disclosure reforms and additional complexities/extensions.

Dodd-Frank, Dealers, and Financers: The Changing Landscape of Federal Consumer Protections for Car Buyers and How You Can Make a Difference

This webinar discusses the topics of the origins of the new Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the new landscape of federal consumer protections for car buyers, as well as the FTC new authority and Auto Dealer Taskforce.

“Smart” Utility Meters And The Movement Toward Dynamic Pricing: The Need For Effective Consumer Protections

This webinar gives a background on smart meter and technology and also covers dynamic pricing of utility service, the cost impact on consumers, essential consumer protections, privacy issues, regulatory and legislative forums where policy decisions will be made, and [...]

Methods for Studying Residential Foreclosure Diversion Processes - a Philadelphia Case Study

This webinar discusses state responses to the need for loan modifications, authority for recent foreclosure mediation programs and procedural variations in different states.

Identifying, Preventing, and Addressing Identity Theft

This webinar discusses an overview of understanding identity theft and its victims as well as assisting victims of financial and non-financial account ID theft, and also resources, tips and tools for assisting victims.

Advising Clients with Tax and Insurance Deficiency Notices on Reverse Mortgages

This webinar covers HECM reverse mortgages, HECM delinquencies, and the aging network role. Presenters: Margot Saunders (NCLC), David Godfrey (ABA Commission on Law and Aging), Greg Case (Administration on Aging), Buz Zeman (HOPE)

New Working Cars for Working Families Website and Getting to Know More Than Wheels

This webinar provides a breakdown of the More Than Wheels mission and how the program works, as well as a walk through of the new Working Cars for Working Families website.

Debt Collection and Arbitration Resources for Pro Se and Pro Bono Cases

This webinar gives an overview of resources including NCLC materials, links, materials for pro se litigants, and materials for attorneys. Presenters: Kristin S. Verrill (Atlanta Legal Aid Society), Arielle Cohen (NCLC)

Due Process Protections in Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Non-Disability Appeals

This webinar focuses on reconsideration and waiver requests for suspension and reduction actions that occur because of reasons other than disability status.

Previous151617Next