

TransUnion v. Ramirez: Part 1

July 15, 2021

NCLC is proud to partner with the National Association of Consumer Advocates (NACA) and Public Justice to host the following webinars for legal aid, government, and non-profit lawyers, and private attorneys who are NACA or Public Justice members. In this series, you will learn how the Ramirez decision alters the approach to standing established by the Supreme Court in Spokeo, and how to select and plead cases to establish standing in FCRA cases after Ramirez.

Speakers:

Lauren KW Brennan, Francis Mailman Soumilas

E. Michelle Drake, Berger Montague

John Soumilas, Francis Mailman Soumilas

Ariel Nelson, Staff Attorney at the National Consumer Law Center
